Summary	:Investment of Nanotechnology Centre of Composites of DowAksa

DISCLOSURE: Material
Disclosure(s):

The contract for the investment of Composite Nanotechnology Centre that we mentioned in our material disclosure dated 1 November 2013 has been signed as of today.

An investment contract worth of 208 million Ruble (around USD 6.1 million) was concluded with DowAksa Advanced Composites Holdings B.V. for Nanotechnology Centre of Composites (NCC) that is the joint project of and Holding Company Composite (HCC) and Fund for Infrastructure and Educational Programs (FIEP, a RUSNANO Group member). DowAksa contributes approx. 134 million Ruble (around USD 4.3 million) to NCC company's capital as per the contract and holds one third shares and DowAksa will also have equal shares in the company after second tour investments to be made simultaneously by HCC and FIEP.

NCC offers an innovative and engineering platform for start-up companies that aim at producing polymer composite materials for sectors such as construction, energy and automotive required for solid and light product solutions around the world. NCC offers R&D, engineering, scale-up and pilot production by obtaining state sponsorship to Russian companies and R&D projects for supporting nanotechnology growth in Russia, investing in start-up companies at seed and venture phase or leasing land and equipment.

We hereby declare that our foregoing disclosures are in compliance with the principles in Communiqué Serial: VIII, No:54 of Capital Markets Board and reflect information received by us on this subject/these subjects and information is in conformity with our books, records and documents and we exert every effort to obtain information about the subject fully and accurately and we are responsible for these disclosures.
